

Francisco Quiazua:

- Centre of Excellence for Early Childhood Development (CEECD)
-Université de Montréal –
- Coordinator of national and international relations.
- In charge of the national and international relations to disseminate the research works of « The Centre of Excellence for Early Childhood Development » contained in the free access electronic Encyclopedia on Early Childhood Development produced by the Centre of Excellence - University of Montreal-
- He is working in touch with NGOs of Latin America, Africa and Europe and with intergovernmental organisations to advance knowledge exchange between north and south.
- He worked many years with non governmental organisations (1984 – 2000) to develop programs on human rights and human development with underprivileged families and children in Europe and Latin America (France, Switzerland, England, Columbia and Central America).
- He has written different articles for national and international newspapers and reviews as comments for radio and TV opinion programs and for scientific publications such as the issue of Bulletin of the Centre of Excellence, on a special Feature on research “Indian’s missing girls”. Volume 6, No. 3 - December 2007 - Can young canadian ECD investigators be first class?
- Doctor in Law, Universidad del Rosario, Columbia.
- Studies in sociology, Université de Paris.
- He has worked and studied on the Early Childhood Development at the Université de Montréal, Centre of Excellence for Early Childhood Development during 10 years and he is attending and he is contributing in many international conferences which have been held in Canada, the Americas and Europe, concerning the early years.